

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ("MOU"), dated as of November 29, 2010, serves as a facilitating document toward establishing cooperation

BETWEEN THE

MERIDEN HOUSING AUTHORITY ("MHA")
22 CHURCH STREET, PO BOX 911

AND THE

DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILIES (the "DCF")
505 HUDSON STREET

1. Background

- 1.1 The MHA and DCF have a joint interest in very low-income families for whom the lack of adequate housing is a primary factor in the separation, or threat of imminent separation, of children from their families or where the lack of adequate housing is a barrier to reunifying children with their families.
- 1.2 The MHA and DCF also have a joint interest in helping youths age 18 through 21 for whom the lack of adequate housing is a primary factor inhibiting a youth's transition to independence.
- 1.3 The MHA's mission, as set forth in the Connecticut statutes and the resolution establishing the Public Housing Authority ("PHA") in 1947, is to provide safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations available to families of low income at rentals they can afford, and the MHA has been implementing that mission since then.
- 1.4 The DCF, established by section 17a-2 of the Connecticut General Statutes in 1969, has as a central focus working with families and communities to improve child safety, ensuring that more children have permanent families, and advancing the overall well-being of children. These efforts are accomplished by respecting and working within individual cultures and communities in Connecticut, and in cooperation with other organizations.
- 1.5 The MHA is applying to HUD to participate in HUD's Family Unification Program ("FUP") so that it might assist very low-income families to lease or purchase decent, safe and sanitary housing that is affordable in the private housing market, thereby hindering familial disintegration. In order to meet the criteria for the FUP application, MHA seeks to collaborate with DCF to fulfill the FUP requirements and improve services to those families targeted under the HUD FUP.

The MHA has worked with the CMHA since 2001 to protect and advocate for MHA youth. MHA and CMHA also utilize other local partners to develop strategies for these clients to maintain their housing within the community. The MHA has operated a "Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program to assist its Voucher and Public Housing Program Participants to obtain employment that will lead to economic independence and self-sufficiency since 1991. Their homeownership programs have placed a dozen HCV and public housing residents in their own homes. Public Child Welfare Agency Statement of Need for Family Unification Program

The City of Meriden Housing Authority is seeking to partner with the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to apply for federal funding of 50 units to serve FUP eligible families and youth in the City of Meriden. DCF is the state child welfare agency in Connecticut. Child Welfare services are provided statewide to children and families through 14 local area offices. Annually DCF receives approximately 30,000 reports of abuse and neglect. The majority of referrals are physical neglect, including a considerable number of reports of "inadequate shelter" of child(ren). Housing is a major issue for child welfare, having a major impact on the preservation and reunification of families.

Connecticut recognizes that family homelessness is a growing problem and has continued to monitor this trend across the state. Every year HUD requires all applicants for federal homeless assistance grants to conduct a "point in time" count of people who are homeless in their communities the last week in January. This count helps to evaluate the causes of homelessness, effectiveness of state and local programs and to monitor progress on eliminating homelessness. According to the last available Connecticut Coalition to End Homelessness¹ annual Point in Time Count Report it was reported that on January 28, 2009 there were 430 families and 801 children in families found to be homeless in Connecticut. There were also 18 accompanied youth found homeless that night.

Many Connecticut communities such as, Hartford, Waterbury, New Britain, New Haven, and Middlesex County, have established and implemented their own "10 Year Plan to End Homelessness". These communities also participate in the annual point in time count and have developed a "Continuum of Care", (a group of local community providers working together to eliminate homelessness). These groups have consistently found that the top causes of homelessness are the lack of well-paid employment and affordable housing. In Connecticut, the average cost of a modest two-bedroom apartment is $1,062 a month. A parent would need to earn at least $20.42 an hour to be able to afford this apartment.² The state minimum wage is $8.25. This is a huge gap considering that if an individual worked two minimum wage jobs, they still would not be able to afford housing for their family. Maintaining housing is a huge struggle, as rent rates continue to increase and wages do not. In Hartford county alone 2/3 of the population live below the poverty line. Areas such as these have the largest concentration of child welfare cases. Poverty, substance abuse, domestic violence, are all exacerbated by the lack of affordable housing. Ultimately children are removed and families are separated.

In an effort to alleviate this dilemma, DCF established the Supportive Housing for Families Program (SHF). Over eleven years ago DCF partnered with the Department of Social Services (DSS) to create this program which provides intensive case management and housing together. The program assists families to develop and utilize a network of services in the following areas: economic (financial support, employment assistance), social (housing, transportation, family support, parenting education, child care) and health (medical/mental health care for adult and child, relapse prevention, domestic/child/substance abuse issues). Permanent housing is established once families receive a Family Unification Voucher or Connecticut's Rental Assistance Program (RAP) Certificate. Families are eligible for housing services for up to two years, even when Child Welfare intervention is no longer required thus ensuring housing stability. The SHF program can serve up to 500 families annually, but only if permanent housing vouchers are made available. The SHF program's success rate is 80%.³

Additionally, DCF proposes to utilize housing vouchers obtained under this NOFA for young adults leaving foster care. DCF has seen a steady increase in youths leaving foster care who experience homelessness. Within one year DCF will receive approximately 100 young adults (average of 8-12 per month) seeking to re-enter the Foster Care system. Sixty (60%) to Seventy (70%) percent of these young adults are seeking assistance from DCF due to their biological families' inability or desire to provide them with adequate and safe housing.¹ Therefore, these young adults face homelessness unless housing supports are made available.

With our partnership with the City of Meriden Housing Authority, we will be able to use awarded vouchers to serve 50 FUP families and FUP eligible youths in the City of Meriden. Currently there is estimated to be over one hundred and fifty (150) families awaiting supportive housing services in the City of Meriden. These families are currently homeless or at risk of homeless. This number is based on the Supportive Housing for Families (SHF) waitlist as of April 30, 2009 and the average of 100 referrals to the SHF statewide program received a month statewide throughout SFY 2009². The waitlist was closed in April 2009 due to the lack permanent housing vouchers.

The Department of Children and Families and the City of Meriden are seeking federal assistance to execute our Memorandum of Understanding to allow our agencies to prevent and/or alleviate homelessness for families, children, and young adults. The need for these housing vouchers is especially critical in this economic climate. The need will continue to grow as deficits rise and budgets are cut. Connecticut is one of the few if not the only state with a proven and successful child welfare program that incorporates intensive case management services with a permanent housing voucher for families. DCF has utilized each and every housing voucher received since the Supportive Housing for Families Program began over 11 years ago. Federal Unification Vouchers are a critical resource to meeting the needs of Connecticut's DCF families and young adults aging out of foster care. Currently the state of Connecticut is unable to continue to provide state rental assistance vouchers for the program, which puts this nationally recognized program in jeopardy.
